

THE 4-WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

THIS MEETING

Kameron Hodgens, CEO & Executive Director of Glasser Shoenbaum Center

In October of 2014, Dr. Hodgens was honored to join the Glasser Schoenbaum Human Services Center, given the tremendous legacy of Dr. Kay Glasser, founder of the Center and former member of the Rotary Club of Sarasota, and the Schoenbaum family, who remain active community philanthropists. The Glasser/Schoenbaum Human Services Center is called the "Center of Caring" because it is home to over 18 non-profit health and human services agencies that help low income and at risk adults, children and families achieve and maintain productive lives as participating, contributing members of our community. The center occupies 14 buildings in a location selected for its accessibility by public transportation.

LAST MEETING Neil Phillips, Principal, Visible Men Acad.

Neil Phillips wowed the audience as he explained the mission and development of charter school, Visible Men Academy. The school is in its second year and educates boys from age 4 through 4th grade. The boys' common thread is generational poverty, which often leads to disconnection from education and then to many problems as they grow, costing their families and society untold problems and losses. Neil and his talented staff believe that each of these boys has greatness within him. The focus of their program is education, but they also focus on character development and addressing each boy's needs according to proficiency level. A goal is to help them be successful BECAUSE of who they are, not IN SPITE of who they are. VMA plans to expand year by year to 8th grade. - Charlotte Ryan
