

THE 4-WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build good will and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

LAST MEETING Helen Fagin, Holocaust Survivor

Just when you think you have heard all the holocaust stories to last a lifetime, someone tells their own life story which really pulls at your heart strings. Helen Fagin grew up in Krakow, Poland and saw war as only a Jewish child can experience it. As her innocent nation was invaded by Nazi Germany, her home was destroyed in the first days of the war by a Nazi bomb. Then for the next six years she experienced the terror of the persecution by the Nazi invaders, which ultimately cost her both of her parents and her sister. While she was able to escape from the Nazis and survive the war and holocaust, it clearly remains with her as if it were only yesterday. She has dedicated herself to educating teachers and others the moral lessons of the holocaust. In 1946 she was able to move to the U.S. where she ultimately received her formal education completing a Ph.D in 1977. Thanks, Helen, for sharing your difficult life story with us. We promise never to forget the holocaust and the six million lives lost. - Ron Rayevich
